DIRE WARNING
AUSTRALIA’S HISTORIC DROUGHT AND A WORLD TRANSFORMED BY CLIMATE CHANGE
The Brief
News from the U.S. and around the world

5 | The stakes of the growing U.S.-Europe estrangement

8 | Rhode Island tries to regain voters' trust

9 | Milestones: Karl Lagerfeld, Lee Radziwill and John Dingell Jr.

10 | The legal fight over Trump's national emergency

11 | Person of the Year Maria Ressa remains resolute despite arrest

The View
Ideas, opinion, innovations

15 | Ian Bremmer: "America First" is more than a catch phrase

17 | How Colin Kaepernick beat the NFL

Features

Battle Royale
A field guide to the crowded 2020 Democratic primary and the showdown with President Trump
By Molly Ball and Philip Elliott

The Big Dry
Australia's farmers struggle with the hottest spell in the nation's modern history
By Casey Quackenbush

Eating for Health
More doctors are seeing the wisdom of using food as medicine
By Alice Park

Time Off
What to watch, read, see and do

45 | The rebirth of trash TV

48 | Folk music torchbearer Rhiannon Giddens

49 | Television: Better Things and a docuseries on the global economy

50 | Books: Helen Oyeyemi's Gingerbread, a journalist's debut novel and true stories from Hollywood

52 | 10 Questions for comedian Ray Romano

ON THE COVER: Photograph by Adam Ferguson for TIME

Krystal Bullen, 36, at her home near Pilliga, New South Wales, Australia; the region's punishing drought devastated her family's farm

Photograph by Adam Ferguson for TIME