Everyday Heroes
30 THE POWER OF SHARING
A library with a difference allows people to borrow tools, garden equipment and even camping gear. ELEANOR CANT

First Person
34 I USED TO BE HOMELESS
Living on the street can be unimaginably tough. A once homeless man talks about the public’s misconceptions. MARK ANTHONY DIBELLO, AS TOLD TO CHARLOTTE HILTON ANDERSEN

Health
40 LEARNING TO NOT FALL
Scientists are developing ‘safe landing responses’ to help limit injuries. NEIL STEINBERG FROM MOSAICSCIENCE.COM

Drama in Real Life
46 TRAPPED INSIDE A GLACIER
A lone scientist studying climate changes plunges into a crevasse in the remote Himalayas. NICHOLAS HUNE-BROWN

Animal Kingdom
54 AMAZING ANIMAL SUPERPOWERS
The abilities that these creatures possess seem like something out of a comic book. READER’S DIGEST EDITORS

Classic Read Compilation
60 LESSONS OF FRIENDSHIP
Two of the most inspiring stories we have ever published remind us the connections people make can transform lives forever.
Contents

MAY 2019

What It’s Like to be ...
78 A TRAVELLING VET
When your patient list begins with armadillos and ends with zebras, you are no ordinary vet. JONATHAN CRANSTON

Life Well Lived
86 35 LESSONS I’VE LEARNT IN 35 YEARS OF MARRIAGE
A humorous look at challenging situations most couples will know well. WINIFRED M. REILLY FROM SPEAKINGOFMARRIAGE.COM

Profile
88 REACHING FOR THE STARS
Best-selling author Lee Child on his maverick hero Jack Reacher and why being made redundant spurred him on. KATHY BUCHANAN

Travel
96 FROM ASHES TO ARBORETUM
The rejuvenating forests and gardens that have arisen from Canberra’s worst-ever bushfires. DIANE GODLEY

Bonus Read
104 WHAT’S WRONG WITH CONNER?
Words came slowly to Conner. But his family was advised not to worry. Until the seizures began. ATHA KALAICHANDRAN FROM THE ATAVIST MAGAZINE